NON-SUPPORTING

The only significant information presented herein is that 88% of the test population were smokers. No conclusions or statements are made concerning the possibility of smoking as a factor responsible for the variability observed in these studies. Statistical analysis of the smoking factor was not reported and apparently was not attempted. This paper is of no consequence (IIb10).

2025031521

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/yhcb0003